Meeting Minutes: November 2023 meeting minutes-Amy Rowe motioned to approve Pam Taylor 2nd: All Approved

Treasurers' Report – Lisa Bianchi

- Question about concessions for Spring- what concessions will be available. Answer: there will only be concessions for Lacrosse in the stadium. This will likely be outsourced. There will be no home track meets this year due to parking.
- Question about what is needed for liability for other town's varsity teams to come in and have joint off season practice with RH Varsity teams. Answer: Tom Stewart will look into this.

Athletic Directors Report – Tom Stewart

- Sectional Season, some sports have already competed others will be competing in the next week or two
- Shared a soccer ball that was donated by an RH family. Signed by former National Women's team players. Recommendation to be displayed with HOF or possibly used to raise funds/ auction off in the future.

Board of Education Report – Suzanne Bennett

- Parent survey starts Feb. 5th; complete one per child
- Budget season. Community meeting at the admin building on 3/27
- Last BOE meeting Karen Marchand was recognized for Section V award
- BOE met with legislatures to discuss the loss of aid and also the future of electric buses
- Question: do we suspend students from extracurricular activities? Answer: It is in the athletics code of conduct who has the ability to suspend from sports. There is no Section V policy or NYSPHSAA policy. It is at the discretion of the district.

Open Forum

- Question: Is there a specific amount of funding/ fundraising a team should aim for?
  - Answer: It's best to work with the coach and the team to determine what is desired during the season and to plan fundraising accordingly.
- Question: How do teams decide what an athlete/ family pays for?
  - Answer (from the group) that is determined by each team and what the team identifies as desired purchases for the year. Suggestion to have clear communication with parents and to have a beginning of the season meeting with all parents.

Motion to adjourn the meeting 8:02pm- Jeff Koppers, second Pam Taylor

Respectfully Submitted,
Kristen Koppers
